

Training Workshop on 7th June

LEADERSHIP vs TRAINING

WHY YOU NEED BOTH FOR SUCCESS

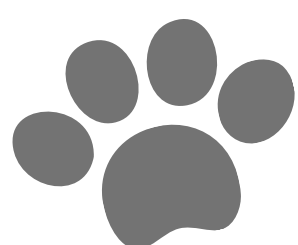

Whether you are a new or seasoned trainer, and whether you have a bouncy juvenile or an old-timer dog, this Workshop will give you new insights into what and how your dog thinks and feels about us and our world. You'll be surprised to learn what your dog is REALLY communicating to you!

Training alone will not bring you success with your dog in everyday life; it will not cure reactivity towards other dogs or people, or stop boundary running or digging at home. It isn't the answer to resource-guarding or fussy eating or barking. This workshop covers understanding Canine Language, and how you can use that to communicate in a way that makes you totally understandable to your dog and allows you to be the decision-maker that your dog needs.

Also covered are training techniques for those wishing to improve behaviour by making training fun and more rewarding for you both.

Ten places have been made available for afternoon One-on-One sessions with your dog and these sessions will be great to watch.

You will see leadership techniques spoken about in the morning session as well as training techniques to improve handler performance.

WHEN: 7th June 09:30 am - 12.00pm (Morning Session)
12:40 pm - 4:00 pm (Afternoon Session)
(There will be 10 min Tea Breaks between both sessions)
